Grated Cotija ▶ Mexican Style Grating Cheese

4/5# (354)

Cotija is a dry grating cheese similar to Parmesan. This is an aged cheese, packed with flavor that gets better as it ages. Often referred to as "Anejo". It is usually saltier than the typical Mexican Cheese. Cotija is strongly flavored and firm, and it is used to add lively garnishing to common dishes like refried beans, salads, pasta, chili, or can be used to add to zest to Mac and Cheese!

Our Cotija cheese is zestier and is one of the best in class. It is made with fresh whole milk from the Midwest; salt cultures and enzymes; and it is also aged longer for that added zest.
